General Raymond J. Reeves
Commander in Chief
North American Air Defense Command
Ent Air Force Base
Colorado Springs, Colorado

Dear General Reeves:

I wish to thank you for the excellent briefings given by officers and civilian members of your Command on 15 and 16 November to members of the Midcareer Executive Development Course of the Central Intelligence Agency.

All of those associated with the program, I have been told, exhibited an outstanding degree of dedication to and enthusiasm for the mission of the North American Air Defense Command. The briefings gave our Midcareer Officers an appreciation of both the strategic and day-to-day operating problems of your Command.

A special word of appreciation is extended to Brigadier General Wright J. Sherrard, USAF, for his hospitality and the effectiveness of the program he arranged. The time that General Sherrard spent with the Midcareer group and the courtesies extended to it were very much appreciated.

I hope that future CIA Midcareer groups will be able to continue to participate in these worthwhile visits.

Sincerely,

/s/ Richard Helms

Bob:
Why don't we write these letters immediately after the visit. I'm sure they would be much more effective.

P.S. cdt would also make my life easier.
